been instructed to work together with the Personnel Commissions on the various party levels in obtaining the following information:

- a. Compilation of a comprehensive list of the functionaries of "enemy political parties", together with all personal and professional information in the smallest detail.
 - b. A summary, extracted from the above list, of all persons who either now are, or may later be, ready or suitable for cooperation with the "Democratic Block". All who are believed to be sympathetic are to be included in this summary.
 - c. A separate list of all anti-Soviet functionaries and those who have denounced others for pro-Soviet or communistic sympathies. Insofar as possible actual evidence is to be obtained and attached to this list.
2. This work is explained as being in preparation for the establishment of a "Democratic Block" in the Western Sectors of Berlin. It will be the responsibility of the personnel functionaries, who may call on other functionaries for assistance. The collection of information is expected to begin after the first of the year, and the program is at present considered secret by the functionaries who
